The Exceptionnels: Private tasting of rare Burgundy Wines in Beaune.

/ A bespoke experience at the heart of Burgundy's finest terroirs

Gain access to some of Burgundy's rarest and most sought-after wines. Every month, we curate a confidential selection of five iconic wines from some of Burgundy's most coveted estates and prestigious terroirs. A unique opportunity to taste rare bottles that are seldom available for tasting and often impossible to experience side by side. A fully customizable private tasting experience available by appointment, weekdays or weekends, from morning until sunset.

/ The selection of the month - September: a journey through the heart of the Côte d'Or

This September, join us for a sensory journey from Chassagne-Montrachet to Gevrey-Chambertin, discovering legendary vineyards and exceptional vintages along the way.

Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru « En Remilly » 2023 - Domaine Philippe Colin (white wine)

Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru 2017 - Domaine Leflaive (white wine)

A legendary terroir and estate: Situated across the villages of Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet, Bâtard-Montrachet belongs to the exclusive circle of Burgundy's greatest white Grand Crus. This bottling comes from Domaine Leflaive, one of Burgundy's most iconic estates and a pioneer of biodynamic viticulture.

Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru « La Combe au Moine » 2018 - Domaine René Bouvier (red wine)

Altitude and expertise: Located high on the slope above Gevrey-Chambertin, this historic vineyard benefits from a unique microclimate. Domaine René Bouvier, established in Gevrey for three generations, farms this site organically.

Musigny Grand Cru 2016 - Domaine Jacques Prieur (red wine)

A rare jewel of the Côte de Nuits: Overlooking Clos de Vougeot from the village of Chambolle-Musigny, Musigny is among the most sought-after vineyard sites in the world. Domaine Jacques Prieur is uniquely positioned, owning parcels in some of the finest terroirs of both the Côte de Beaune and the Côte de Nuits.

La Grande Rue Grand Cru 2009 – Monopole - Domaine François Lamarche (red wine)

The exclusivity of a historic Monopole: Running through the heart of Vosne-Romanée, this narrow strip of Grand Cru vineyard is exclusively owned by Domaine François Lamarche. It sits between some of Burgundy's most legendary vineyards, including La Tâche, La Romanée and Romanée-Conti.
